

Wellbeing Vice-President

This is a part-time, voluntary role running from 17 June 2024 - 30 June 2025.

What's the role?

- To act as the recognised spokesperson for students relevant to their position and act in the best interests of the students at St Mary's University
- To represent students to the union, the university and national bodies, as appropriate.
- To actively ensure that SMSU is meeting the wellbeing and welfare needs of students.
- To produce activity reports discussing information shared at University committee meetings which shall be presented to the relevant Union Committees.
- To actively gather feedback and ideas related to wellbeing from students and to then represent and communicate key information and decisions back to them, closing the feedback loop.
- To chair meetings and host focus groups.
- To engage with the democratic processes of SMSU by attending the Executive Committee and the Student Members meeting (formerly AGM).
- To run campaigns in collaboration with the Sabbatical Officers (Education President and Student Life President) and other Part time Officers to effect change.
- To feedback to students about the work they have been doing through reports, in person meetings and through social media.

What's in it for me?

- Amazing opportunity to develop leadership, communication and negotiation skills
- Potential to influence change to benefit all students at St Mary's University with regard to student wellbeing
- Great CV builder that will help you stand out from the crowd
- Opportunity to meet, network and socialise with students from all backgrounds from across the University
- Opportunity to become more involved in SMSU
